

NES2012

Saltsjöbaden, Stockholm, Sweden, 19-22 August, 2012, www.nes2012.se

Invitation to exhibitors

In 2012, Stockholm plays host to the annual Nordic Ergonomic Society's international conference that highlights 'Ergonomics for sustainability and growth'. The event brings together professionals active in ergonomics, from industry, occupational health services, research and education. We expect 200-300 participants, primarily from Sweden and the Nordic countries, but also from the rest of Europe and other continents.

We offer

As an exhibitor at the conference, you can not only promote your trademark, but also help build professional networks. Benefits include:

- A centrally located exhibition area, where networking lunches and coffee breaks also take place.
- Meet decision makers who are investing in work site products and services.
- Interact with ergonomics experts and advisors involved with selecting and purchasing products.
- Share experiences and exchange knowledge with researchers and practitioners.
- Lunch and coffee during the conference days for one representative.
- Presented as 'exhibitor' with logo displayed on the NES2012 home page and in the conference program.

About the conference

For more than 40 years, NES has been arranging annual international conferences in ergonomics. These have functioned as vital meeting points for industry professionals as well as practitioners, researchers and educators. The 44th conference will be held August 19-22, 2012 at Vår Gård conference center in Saltsjöbaden, beautifully situated in the Swedish archipelago, NES2012 offers opportunities for inspired meetings, all within unique, turn-of-the-century surroundings.
